

Greetings!

Please join me in welcoming Calvin Wang, our newly hired CCO staff person, who has accepted a call to college ministry, helping the CCO in the mission of transforming college students to transform the world. Calvin will be serving as a campus minister at Arcadia University and I am excited to invite you to learn about what God is doing in his life.

The CCO (Coalition for Christian Outreach) is a campus ministry that calls college students to serve Jesus Christ with their entire lives. The CCO is uniquely equipped to reach students in a few ways:

- We share the Gospel with students and develop passionate disciples of Jesus Christ.
- We serve together with the church and invite students into the lives of local congregations.
- We give students a vision for serving Jesus Christ in their studies, jobs, communities, and families.

Please enjoy Calvin's enclosed letter, which will provide you with more information about this ministry, as well as his unique role in it. The CCO has been building a ministry at Arcadia for many years, which has been led and stewarded by several gifted campus ministers throughout that time. I am so excited and grateful that Calvin has accepted the call to join our team to help both deepen and broaden our reach at Arcadia to help transform students and faculty with the Gospel. I know his presence on campus is a blessing to the Arcadia University community and to the Kingdom of God.

Each CCO staff person trusts God to provide a significant portion of their financial support through the generous gifts of God's people who share a passion for reaching every student with the Good News of Jesus Christ. We encourage staff to regularly inform their friends and family about the ministry and to speak to you about opportunities to invest in this strategic mission field through financial giving.

Your partnership is critical. Donations for financial support may begin immediately and will be the foundation for full support when training and full-time ministry begins. Please use the enclosed envelope for your initial gift and words of encouragement.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me directly.

Sincerely,

Sam Levy
